Educate . Empower . Innovate

Through this programme, students would be able to have a clear perception of the contemporary Muslim society and of the dangers threatening its very existence and future survival. They are also expected to be capable of drawing up plans to deal effectively with the designs of the enemies of Muslim Ummah to annihilate Islam as an ideology and to obstruct the efforts of the Muslims to restructure their social life according to Islamic principles and values. The students would be able to understand the modern methods and techniques of Da'wah as well as familiarize with contemporary ideologies and philosophies threatening the very existence of Islamic communities.
